

LINDA V. CARLISLE

Curriculum Vita

Library & Information Services
Southern Illinois University Edwardsville
Box 1063, 2102 Lovejoy Library
(618) 650-2423
lcarlis@siue.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D., History, 8/04
Southern Illinois University Carbondale
Dissertation Chair: John Y. Simon, Southern Illinois University Carbondale
Dissertation topic: Elizabeth Packard and Boundaries of Gender, Religion, and Sanity in Nineteenth-Century America

M.S., Library & Information Science, 8/85
University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign

B.S., Psychology (summa cum laude), 5/80
Blackburn College, Carlinville, IL

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, Edwardsville, IL, 1986-Present. Associate Professor.
Social Sciences Librarian, 10/87 to present
Adjunct Instructor, Department of Historical Studies, HIST 314, History of the Development of Feminist Thought, spring semester 2001
Head, Library Circulation Department, 2/86-10/87

Ursuline Academy, Springfield, IL, 8/85-1/86
School Librarian

Blackburn College, Carlinville, IL, 8/80-5/84
Head, Circulation Department

RESEARCH INTERESTS:

- Library & Information Science: Information literacy & instruction in the social sciences
- History: U. S. history; women's history; history of women and religion; history of the care and treatment of the mentally ill

PUBLICATIONS

Carlisle, Linda V. "“New Notions and Wild Vagaries’: Elizabeth Packard’s Quest for Personal Liberty,”
The Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society 93(1), Spring 2000.

Pruitt, Linda V. "The Hand That Rocked the Cradle Shaped the Church: How Church Women in American History Shaped a Culture," The Central Illinois Historical Messenger 26 (2), April-June 1994.

Pruitt, Linda Carlisle. Women in the United Methodist Tradition: The Central Illinois Example: A Guide to Research Methods and Resources, Bloomington, IL: Central Illinois Conference Commission on Archives and History, The United Methodist Church, 1991.

Pruitt, Linda Carlisle, "Ann Dumville: A Woman of Conviction," Methodist History, April 1987.

Pruitt, Linda Vee. "Archives and Records Management in the Federal Government: The Post-GSA Context," Provenance 3 (2), Fall 1985.

Regular book reviewer for Library Journal, 1992 – present.

PAPERS & PRESENTATIONS

Carlisle, Linda V. "Faithful in the Common Tasks: Methodist Tradition Ladies Aid Societies." Invited speaker, Carlinville United Methodist Church, United Methodist Women's Day, September 15, 2002.

_____. "‘I Though a Woman’: Elizabeth Packard and the Boundaries of Gender, Science, and Sanity in Nineteenth Century America." Paper, Harvard University Graduate Gender Studies Conference, March 3, 2001.

_____. "‘New Notions and Wild Vagaries’: The Life and Thought of Elizabeth Packard, 19th Century Illinois Reformer." Paper, Illinois History Symposium, Springfield (December 2, 1999).

_____. "Customized and Personalized: Bibliographic Instruction to Span The Millennia." Poster Session (with Kathlyn Behm, Lydia Jackson and Julia Hansen), Illinois Library Association, Chicago, October 1999.

_____. "How Do I Get from Virtual Reality to Reality? Bibliographic Instruction in the Electronic Age." Poster Session (with Kathlyn Behm, Lydia Jackson and Julia Hansen), American Library Association, New Orleans, July 1999.

_____. "Is There Virtue in Virtuality? Redefining Instruction in the Academic Library: Examples from the Social Sciences." Presentation, Illinois Association of College and Research Libraries, Matteson, Illinois, April, 1998.

_____. "How American Church Women Shaped a Culture." Invited paper, North Central Jurisdiction Archives and History Convocation, United Methodist Church, Illinois Wesleyan University, Bloomington, IL July 10-13, 1995.

AWARDS

- Richard and Donna Falvo Outstanding Dissertation Award, SIUC (Nominated, 2004)
- Harry T. Pratt Award – Presented by the Illinois State Historical Society for article of the year in The Journal of the Illinois State Historical Society (2000)
- Kleinstuck Award, Department of Historical Studies, Southern Illinois University Edwardsville, for best paper in German history, "Mechthilde of Magdeburg: A Space Enlarged by Love" (1997)
- Judith D. Chien Fellowship, University of Illinois-Urbana (1984-85)
- J. Huchens Fellowship, University of Illinois-Urbana (1984-85)
- Alpha Chi Scholastic Honorary Society (1980)
- Blackburn College Academic Achievement Award (1980)

GRANTS

Excellence in Undergraduate Education Grants, SIUE:

- $ 75,000 for Materials to Support Undergraduate Reading and Research in Courses Taught by New Faculty (1998)
- $ 55,000 for Undergraduate Book Collections (with G. Denué and T. Zoski, 1992)
- $ 6,000 for Books on Colonial American History and Culture (1992)
- $ 6,500 for Gender Studies Monographs (1991)
- $ 64,000 for Replacement of Lost/Missing Books (1990)
- $ 8,000 for Social Sciences Reference Materials (1990)

ICCMP & CARLI Grants, Consortium of Academic Libraries in Illinois:

- $3,050.00 for Primary Sources & Monographs on the History of Cuba and Mexico (2008)
- $2,271.00 for Monographs & Dissertations on Indians of North America (2008)
- $3,428.57 for Monographs on Indians of North America (2007)
- $ 2,535 for FBI files on American Indian Movement and Wounded Knee (1993)
- $ 3,012 for Monographs on Public Policy Issues (1992)
- $ 2,500 for Monographs on Western Europe Since 1945 (1992)
- $ 2,030 for Recent European Studies Monographs (1991)

Research and Faculty Development Grants:

- King V. Hostick Award ($2,070), awarded by Illinois Historic Preservation Agency & Illinois State Historical Society for dissertation research related to Illinois history (2002)
- Funded University Research award ($800) for travel to Bancroft Library, Berkeley, California (1999)
- Faculty Development award ($800) to develop workshop “Scholarly Communication in the Electronic Age (with Library Research and Projects Committee, 1996)
- Faculty Development award ($3,000), to develop library-wide faculty development seminar (with M. McFarland, 1992)
- Funded University Research award ($948) for Methodist Women’s History Project (1989)
- Funded University Research award ($200) for Methodist Women’s History Project (1988)

PROFESSIONAL SERVICE & MEMBERSHIPS (Current)

Library & Information Services:

Collection Management Committee
 Content DM Committee
 Exhibits Committee
 Facilities Planning Committee
 Research, Projects and Development Committee
 Strategic Planning Committee
 Tenure, Promotion and Salary
 Web Page Development Task Force

University:

Women’s Studies Program Faculty

Professional Memberships:

American Library Association
 Association of College and Research Libraries
 Friends of Lovejoy Library
 Phi Kappa Phi