SIUE To Graduate More Than 900 During Fall Commencement

(EDWARDSVILLE, Ill.) More than 900 students are eligible to graduate from Southern Illinois University Edwardsville during fall commencement ceremonies at 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. Saturday, Dec. 18, in SIUE's Vadalabene Center.

Eligible candidates from the Graduate School and the Schools of Business, Education and Nursing will march at the 9 a.m. ceremony, while candidates from the College of Arts and Sciences (CAS), as well as the Graduate School and the School of Engineering, will receive diplomas at the 1 p.m. ceremony.

Valerie Yancey, associate professor of primary care and health systems nursing in the SIUE School of Nursing, will be the commencement speaker at both ceremonies. Earlier this year, Yancey won the SIUE 2010 Teaching Excellence Award, the most prestigious award a member of the faculty can win from the University.

Yancey earned a bachelor's at Valparaiso University, as well as a bachelor of science in Nursing and an MSN-R and a Ph.D., both from Saint Louis University. She has authored several scholarly publications and is a member of professional societies, including Phi Beta Kappa, Sigma Theta Tau, the Epsilon Eta Chapter, Missouri Nurses Association, American Holistic Nurses Association and the American Critical Care Nurses Association as lifetime member.

The names of graduate candidates from Illinois and Missouri, and their degrees, are first, and then alphabetically from other states. Students graduating with special honors are indicated as follows:

* = Cum Laude,  = Magna Cum Laude,  = Summa Cum Laude, † = Meridian Scholars:
